When I bought the property, a previously mapped irrigation works (sprinkler system) was already in the ground, with a point of diversion from the Gregory Ditch. The previous owner (John Hinson) filed Permit 74131 to change the point of diversion to the river. I completed the works under 74131, establishing the point of diversion from the river, the pump and various filters and lines to the existing sprinkler system, (proof of completion filed August 10, 2009). However, the previous owner failed in permit 74131 to divert enough water to operate all of the existing mapped sprinklered acreage; for reasons unknown. This project will simply divert enough additional water to operated the already mapped sprinkler system.
